

Good practice nº 6
Title	Social inclusion through football
Author/Name of the institution (organization)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Football Federation of the Region of Murcia - UCAM International Chair of Corporate Social Responsibility - Management Development Programme in Social Responsibility "LídeRes".
Type of the good practice	Program
Place	Murcia, Spain
Start date / End date	2019
Target group of learners	Young foreign minors in vulnerable situations and with problems with the law and people with disabilities.
Institutions involved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Football Federation of the Region of Murcia - International Chair of Corporate Social Responsibility of the UCAM - Management Development Programme in Social Responsibility "LídeRes" - Royal Spanish Football Federation
Goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To favour the social inclusion of foreign minors through football. ● To carry out activities with associations of people with disabilities. ● Promote sport as a key tool for the social inclusion of disadvantaged people.
Description	In November 2019, the Football Federation of the Region of Murcia launched a programme to promote the social inclusion of foreign minors through football.

	To carry it out, they collaborated jointly with the International Chair of Corporate Social Responsibility of the Catholic University of Murcia and the programme was implemented through the Management Development Programme in Social Responsibility "LídeRes". The programme aims at the inclusion of young people in situations of vulnerability and/or in conflict with the law. In addition, they studied how to deal with unaccompanied minors in order to offer them programmed sports activities.
Link to the source (if available)	https://www.ucam.edu/noticias/inclusion-social-a-traves-del-futbol