Description	The project "Fotball in Los Barrios" started in 2020 in the city of Camagüey in which Mark Keller is responsible and Andreas Keller is a volunteer. In this project, different institutions cooperate such as the sports management of the city itself, the Office of the Historian of the City and the children and youth association "Pioneros". In addition, the Cuban Football Association is also cooperating.

	This project supports 1,000 boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 15 in the city of Camagüey. The main objective is to provide leisure activities, mainly based on football, as well as to offer pedagogical and socio-cultural activities and inclusion through football. Camaquito, which is the organisation behind the project, organises the "Camaquito Cup" every weekend. In addition to educational workshops, socio-cultural visits around the city, visits to dance, music or dance shows and school support and guidance for the most disadvantaged. Camaquito also offers training for football coaches with a focus on social integration.
